

Review Exercise: Will and Going to Forms

Make sentences using 'will' or 'be going to'. Use short forms if possible.

1. Be going to: he / call the restaurant.

2. Be going to: you / study tonight?

3. Be going to: she / become a doctor.

4. Will: you / come with us?

5. Be going to: They not / buy a new car.

6. Will: they / meet us later?

7. Will: We / have fun.

8. Will: They / find time tomorrow.

9. Will: It not / rain tonight.

10. Be going to: I / get something to eat.

11. Will: I not / do it.

12. Be going to: I not / drive to the match.

13. Be going to: he / buy some food?

14. Will: I / go and buy some bread.

15. Will: he / finish the book?

16. Be going to: your colleagues / have a meeting?

17. Will: She not / go out later.

18. Be going to: We not / take our bikes.

19. Be going to: She not / meet us.

20. Will: The children not / help me.

Review Exercise: Will and Going to Forms

1. He's going to call the restaurant.
2. Are you going to study tonight?
3. She's going to become a doctor.
4. Will you come with us?
5. They aren't going to buy a new car.
6. Will they meet us later?
7. We'll have fun.
8. They'll find time tomorrow.
9. It won't rain tonight.
10. I'm going to get something to eat.
11. I won't do it.
12. I'm not going to drive to the match.
13. Is he going to buy some food?
14. I'll go and buy some bread.
15. Will he finish the book?
16. Are your colleagues going to have a meeting?
17. She won't go out later.
18. We aren't going to take our bikes.
19. She isn't going to meet us.
20. The children won't help me.