

Review Exercise: Gerund or Infinitive

Put the verb into the gerund or the infinitive. Here, we use the gerund after 'like', 'love' and 'hate'.

1. I finished _____ (make) lunch.
2. They like _____ (study) grammar!
3. The students wanted _____ (pass) the exam.
4. They planned _____ (move) house last year.
5. He needed _____ (find) a taxi.
6. We are planning _____ (meet) later.
7. She's learning _____ (cook).
8. We hope _____ (see) you tomorrow.
9. The children hate _____ (travel) by car.
10. We love _____ (drink) coffee outside.
11. She loves _____ (take) long baths.
12. They want _____ (get) an ice cream.
13. I hoped _____ (have) more free time.
14. They enjoy _____ (play) chess.
15. We really enjoyed _____ (meet) Julia.
16. He will learn _____ (speak) Italian.
17. They will finish _____ (clean) the office today.
18. We like _____ (have) parties.
19. She needs _____ (get) a job.
20. I hate _____ (walk) in the rain.

Review Exercise: Gerund or Infinitive

1. I finished making lunch.
2. They like studying grammar!
3. The students wanted to pass the exam.
4. They planned to move house last year.
5. He needed to find a taxi.
6. We are planning to meet later.
7. She's learning to cook.
8. We hope to see you tomorrow.
9. The children hate travelling by car.
10. We love drinking coffee outside.
11. She loves taking long baths.
12. They want to get an ice cream.
13. I hoped to have more free time.
14. They enjoy playing chess.
15. We really enjoyed meeting Julia.
16. He will learn to speak Italian.
17. They will finish cleaning the office today.
18. We like having parties.
19. She needs to get a job.
20. I hate walking in the rain.