

Review Exercise: Much / Many / A Little / A Few

Put in 'much', 'many', 'a little', or 'a few'.

1. He doesn't eat _____ meat.
2. They didn't read _____ books.
3. He drank _____ water.
4. She bought _____ chocolate.
5. I read _____ books during the summer.
6. He bought _____ apples.
7. I don't have _____ time.
8. Did the students have _____ exams?
9. They have _____ money.
10. Did they drink _____ water?
11. Do the children have _____ homework?
12. The room needs _____ pictures.
13. The soup needs _____ salt.
14. She called _____ friends.
15. I don't have _____ ideas about this.
16. We don't have _____ food.
17. Did you get _____ interviews?
18. She doesn't want _____ biscuits.
19. We did it in _____ hours.
20. I'd like _____ coffee, please.

Review Exercise: Much / Many / A Little / A Few

1. He doesn't eat much meat.
2. They didn't read many books.
3. He drank a little water.
4. She bought a little chocolate.
5. I read a few books during the summer.
6. He bought a few apples.
7. I don't have much time.
8. Did they students have many exams?
9. They have a little money.
10. Did they drink much water?
11. Do the children have much homework?
12. The room needs a few pictures.
13. The soup needs a little salt.
14. She called a few friends.
15. I don't have many ideas about this.
16. We don't have much food.
17. Did you get many interviews?
18. She doesn't want many biscuits.
19. We did it in a few hours.
20. I'd like a little coffee, please.