

Review Exercise: You = People in General

Change the sentences to include 'you'. Don't change the meaning.

1. People shouldn't smoke in a hospital.

2. Everyone can buy food on the train.

3. People in general mustn't drop rubbish on the ground.

4. All the people have to buy a ticket before getting on the bus.

5. People can't hire a car at the airport.

6. Everyone needs to turn off the phone at night.

7. People in general shouldn't eat fast food.

8. Everybody can fly to Scotland.

9. Everybody can get books from the library.

10. People don't have to pay to go to a museum in London.

Review Exercise: You = People in General

1. You shouldn't smoke in a hospital.
2. You can buy food on the train.
3. You mustn't drop rubbish on the ground.
4. You have to buy a ticket before getting on the bus.
5. You can't hire a car at the airport.
6. You need to turn off the phone at night.
7. You shouldn't eat fast food.
8. You can fly to Scotland.
9. You can get books from the library.
10. You don't have to pay to go to a museum in London.