

‘Can’ For Permission in General

Change the sentences so that they include ‘can’ and ‘you’ - this is the general use of ‘you’.

1. Is it okay to bring drinks inside?

2. It’s not okay to use your phone in the cinema.

3. Is it okay to have a barbecue here?

4. Is it okay to park by the river?

5. It’s not okay to talk during the class.

6. It’s not okay to walk on the grass.

7. It’s okay to have a picnic here.

8. It’s okay to buy a ticket on the train.

9. Is it okay to use your phone here?

10. It’s okay to park anywhere.

11. It's not okay to smoke inside.

12. It's not okay to drink wine on the train.

13. It's not okay to drive without a license.

14. It's not okay to make a noise during the exam.

15. It's not okay to eat here.

16. It's okay to smoke in the garden.

17. It's not okay to park here.

18. It's not okay to go into the theatre without a ticket.

19. Is it okay to drive through the town?

20. It's okay to take drinks into the theatre.

‘Would like’

Make the sentences more polite by using ‘would like’.

1. I want a cup of coffee.

2. Which one do you want?

3. I want a chocolate brownie, please.

4. What do you want?

5. I want to go swimming today.

6. He wants a sandwich.

7. She wants some water.

8. Do you want to go home?

9. We want to leave early.

10. Do you want chocolate or strawberry?

‘Can’ For Permission in General Answers:

1. Can you bring drinks inside?
2. You can't use your phone in the cinema.
3. Can you have a barbecue here?
4. Can you park by the river?
5. You can't talk during the class.
6. You can't walk on the grass.
7. You can have a picnic here.
8. You can buy a ticket on the train.
9. Can you use your phone here?
10. You can park anywhere.
11. You can't smoke inside.
12. You can't drink wine on the train.
13. You can't drive without a license.
14. You can't make a noise during the exam.
15. You can't eat here.
16. You can smoke in the garden.
17. You can't park here.
18. You can't go into the theatre without a ticket.
19. Can you drive through the town?
20. You can take drinks into the theatre.

‘Would like’ Answers:

1. I’d like a cup of coffee.
2. Which one would you like?
3. I’d like a chocolate brownie, please.
4. What would you like?
5. I’d like to go swimming today.
6. He’d like a sandwich.
7. She’d like some water.
8. Would you like to go home?
9. We’d like to leave early.
10. Would you like chocolate or strawberry?