

Possessive 's'

Change the sentence so that it includes 's or s'. For example: Question: Those shoes belong to the boys. Answer: Those are the boys' shoes.

1. That ring belongs to Amanda. _____
2. That car belongs to my friends. _____
3. Those books belong to the students. _____
4. That phone belongs to David. _____
5. That chocolate belongs to the children. _____
6. That glass belongs to Susan. _____
7. Those cups belong to the men. _____
8. Those toys belong to the cats. _____
9. That flat belongs to Lucy. _____
10. Those boots belong to my niece. _____
11. Those boxes belong to the secretary. _____
12. That cheese belongs to the mice. _____
13. That tea belongs to the boss. _____
14. Those bikes belong to your flatmates. _____
15. Those ideas belong to the people. _____
16. That coat belongs to the boy. _____
17. Those shoes belong to the girls. _____
18. That laptop belongs to the adults. _____
19. Those bags belong to the women. _____
20. That coffee belongs to the teachers. _____

Answers:

1. That is Amanda's ring.
2. That is my friends' car.
3. Those are the students' books.
4. That is David's phone.
5. That is the children's chocolate.
6. That is Susan's glass.
7. Those are the men's cups.
8. Those are the cats' toys.
9. That is Lucy's flat.
10. Those are my niece's boots.
11. Those are the secretary's boxes.
12. That is the mice's cheese.
13. That is the boss's tea.
14. Those are your flatmates' bikes.
15. Those are the people's ideas.
16. That is the boy's coat.
17. Those are the girls' shoes.
18. That is the adults' laptop.
19. Those are the women's bags.
20. That is the teachers' coffee.