

‘Much’ or ‘Many’?

Put in ‘much’ or ‘many’.

1. We don’t have _____ free time.
2. They don’t eat _____ rice.
3. Does he need _____ help?
4. They don’t eat _____ sweets.
5. They don’t drink _____ water.
6. Do the children have _____ homework?
7. I don’t have _____ shoes.
8. Julia doesn’t have _____ work just now.
9. Does she visit _____ places?
10. We don’t want to see _____ people.
11. He doesn’t have _____ money.
12. He doesn’t like _____ films.
13. Does she eat _____ fruit?
14. Is there _____ rain there?
15. Do you have _____ friends?
16. Do the students do _____ exams?
17. Does he send _____ emails?
18. Do you have _____ chocolate left?
19. Do you bake _____ cakes?
20. The children don’t eat _____ vegetables.

Answers:

1. We don't have much free time.
2. They don't eat much rice.
3. Does he need much help?
4. They don't eat many sweets.
5. They don't drink much water.
6. Do the children have much homework?
7. I don't have many shoes.
8. Julia doesn't have much work just now.
9. Does she visit many places?
10. We don't want to see many people.
11. He doesn't have much money.
12. He doesn't like many films.
13. Does she eat much fruit?
14. Is there much rain there?
15. Do you have many friends?
16. Do the students do many exams?
17. Does he send many emails?
18. Do you have much chocolate left?
19. Do you bake many cakes?
20. The children don't eat many vegetables.