

This / That / These / Those

Put 'this / that / these / those' in the sentence.

1. She picked up _____ box easily! (The box is next to the other person.)
2. Whose is _____ car? (The car is near me.)
3. Could you hold _____ coats, please? (I am holding the coats when I say this.)
4. _____ meal was delicious. (we had the meal last week.)
5. _____ is my mum. Mum, meet James.
6. _____ are my glasses. (the other person is holding the glasses.)
7. _____ laptop is amazing. (I'm using the laptop.)
8. _____ are the best chips. (I'm eating the chips.)
9. Are _____ books yours? (The books are on a table near you.)
10. _____ boy over there is my brother.
11. _____ chocolates are for you. (I'm holding the chocolates.)
12. _____ bag is very old. (I'm holding the bag.)
13. _____ cakes are delicious. (the cakes are not beside me.)
14. _____ plants need a new home. (I'm beside the plants.)
15. Do you know what _____ thing is? (I'm holding the thing.)
16. Do you know _____ cat at the end of the garden?
17. _____ trousers really suit you.
18. What are _____? (I mean more than one thing next to the other person.)
19. A: _____ are my cousins, Emily and Harry. B: Pleased to meet you.
20. Can you give me _____? (I mean one thing near to the other person.)

Answers:

1. She picked up that box easily! (The box is next to the other person.)
2. Whose is this car? (The car is near me.)
3. Could you hold these coats, please? (I am holding the coats when I say this.)
4. That meal was delicious (we had the meal last week).
5. This is my mum. Mum, meet James.
6. Those are my glasses (the other person is holding the glasses).
7. This laptop is amazing. (I'm using the laptop.)
8. These are the best chips (I'm eating the chips).
9. Are these books yours? (The books are on a table near you.)
10. That boy over there is my brother.
11. These chocolates are for you (I'm holding the chocolates).
12. This bag is very old. (I'm holding the bag.)
13. Those cakes are delicious (the cakes are not beside me).
14. These plants need a new home. (I'm beside the plants.)
15. Do you know what this thing is? (I'm holding the thing.)
16. Do you know that cat at the end of the garden?
17. Those trousers really suit you.
18. What are those? (I mean more than one thing next to the other person.)
19. A: These are my cousins, Emily and Harry. B: Pleased to meet you.
20. Can you give me that? (I mean one thing near to the other person.)