

‘There is’ and ‘There are’

Change these (strange!) sentences so that they include ‘there’.

1. A theatre is near my house. _____
2. A man is outside. _____
3. Two banks are in my town. _____
4. Some biscuits are in the box. _____
5. Three plates are in the dishwasher. _____
6. An Italian restaurant is near here. _____
7. A great bookshop is round the corner. _____
8. Is any money in the account? _____
9. Two cats are in the garden. _____
10. A huge lorry is in our street. _____
11. Is a coffee shop near here? _____
12. Is mud on the floor? _____
13. Are apples in your bag? _____
14. Are any cakes in the kitchen? _____
15. Some coffee is in the kitchen. _____
16. A book is in my bag. _____
17. A gym is near my work. _____
18. A cup is on the table. _____
19. A lot of parks are in London. _____
20. A café is near the station. _____

Answers:

1. There is a theatre near my house.
2. There is a man outside.
3. There are two banks in my town.
4. There are some biscuits in the box.
5. There are three plates in the dishwasher.
6. There is an Italian restaurant near here.
7. There is a great bookshop round the corner.
8. Is there any money in the account?
9. There are two cats in the garden.
10. There is a huge lorry in our street.
11. Is there a coffee shop near here?
12. Is there mud on the floor?
13. Are there apples in your bag?
14. Are there any cakes in the kitchen?
15. There is some coffee in the kitchen.
16. There is a book in my bag.
17. There is a gym near my work.
18. There is a cup on the table.
19. There are a lot of parks in London.
20. There is a café near the station.