

Prepositions After Adjectives

Put in the correct preposition.

1. I'm pretty bad _____ tennis.
2. This subject is difficult _____ me.
3. The child is really excited _____ his birthday.
4. She is married _____ David.
5. We were frightened _____ the noise.
6. I'm interested _____ history.
7. They are good _____ maths.
8. She's worried _____ money.
9. He is very bad _____ listening!
10. Running is difficult _____ her.
11. Are you good _____ French?
12. Are you surprised _____ the problem?
13. He is frightened _____ dogs.
14. I am married _____ Robert.
15. Music is easy _____ her. She's naturally good at it.
16. Swimming is easy _____ them.
17. Are you excited _____ your new job?
18. I'm worried _____ this project.
19. She was surprised _____ the party.
20. He is very interested _____ science.

Answers:

1. I'm pretty bad at tennis.
2. This subject is difficult for me.
3. The child is really excited about his birthday.
4. She is married to David.
5. We were frightened of the noise.
6. I'm interested in history.
7. They are good at maths.
8. She's worried about money.
9. He is very bad at listening!
10. Running is difficult for her.
11. Are you good at French?
12. Are you surprised about the problem?
13. He is frightened of dogs.
14. I am married to Robert.
15. Music is easy for her. She's naturally good at it.
16. Swimming is easy for them.
17. Are you excited about your new job?
18. I'm worried about this project.
19. She was surprised about the party.
20. He is very interested in science.